The Old Men's Grant Meeting.

Well, wife we've had a meetin' at the school house on the hill;
And I was chozen chairman to keep the old men still,
But I found I couldn't do it: each man down his cane would plant,
And shout with all the voice he had, "I'm goin' in for Grant"

We talked about the four past years, what great things had been done;
How the nation's debt had melted like the snow before the sun;
We said, to keep it meltin', to do a better thing we can't,
Then to stick and hang together, and all go in for Grant!

We all looked through our spectacles upon the naked facts,
Then drew the veil of charity o'er giant Sumner's acts;
We said, "We like you, Sumner, but go your way we can't"—
Then made the school-house echo with a rousing shout for Grant.

We didn't have much charity for Trumbull or for Schurz;
They stand around the party gate, a pair of snarling curs;
Their speeches cannot harm us nor make Grant toe their mark;
He's an old Galena tanner and knows how to handle Bark.

We talked about Grant's smokin—we thought it no great sin;
To vote that out office, we might vote a worse one in:—
And seein' we were smokers, twouldn't do for us to rant,
So we lit our pipes together and smoked the health of Grant.

In the days of the rebellion none of us could go and fight,
But we read from morn till evening how he battled for the right.
He has been the nation's servant in the days of war,
And treason melts before him like the smoke of his cigar.

After I'd adjourned the meetin' I give each a friendly grip;
We're everyone determined to stand by the war-tried ship;
We will not topple over, we will not ever slant,
But put our canes down good and strong, and stand up straight for Grant.

Selected Story.

Love Without Nonsense.—A Capital Take-off on the High-pressure Style of Doing It.

Once upon a time, there was a fair young maiden, whose name was Mary, although they called her Moll, for short. She wasn't a tall, dark-eyed maiden, with clear, transparent skin, and lips like cherries, and cheeks suffused with blushes. She didn't have glossy black hair, sweeping back in wavy tresses from her queenly brow, and her form wasn't a bit like Hebe's. No, there was none of these things. On the contrary, she was short and thin, and had red hair and freckles, and she also sported snaggle teeth, and wore pads; but still she was a right nice girl, and there was a young man who fell in love with her, and his name was Bill, although his friends called him William when they wanted to hurt his feelings, for he didn't like it much. He wasn't fine looking, and had neither curly brown hair nor a mustache. Not much. Bill laid himself out on soap locks, and wore a goatee that he had dyed twice a week.

Now, this Bill was in love with Mary, but did he go and make a deliberate ass of himself? Did he, I say, go into a grove with her, and in the soft moonlight, by the streamlet that murmured sweetly by, and with the tender zephyr sighing through the foliage, fall down on his knees, seize her jeweled hand, and breathe his deep affection in the tender accents of fond attachments, and swear by "yon bright orb above us always to be thine? Did he, I say? You can just bet he didn't. You can lay out your whole revenue safely on that. William knew too much about the price of pants to go flopping around on the wet grass with his good clothes on; besides, he never cared anything about streamlets, or any kind of cold water, except with his gin. Now sir, it was exceedingly strange, but this infatuated William met her at the alley gate, and he stood right up on his old legs and says: "Say, Moll, old gal, s'posen we get hitched.'?"

But how did Mary behave? Did she go drooping to sleep over on the bricks in a dead faint, or did she hide her gentle head on his shirt bosom to hide the blushes? No, she didn't, and she didn't say, "I'm even thine, dear William!" Oh, my, no. She looked right in his yellow eyes, and says: "I'm in, Billy!" And instead of referring him to her father, she laughed right out a gay ringing ha! ha! ha! And she didn't ask William to try to mollify her fond father. No, no. She very wickedly advised him to "poke the old man in the nose if he gave him any of his lip." She was a funny girl, this Mary.

Now, the old man wasn't wealthy, for he sold soap-fat for a living, and so he didn't think Bill was nosing around after his stamps, so when Bill asked him, he neither ordered him fiercely away, nor did the dewy moisture in his eagle eye, as he passed his hemstitched up there, and said: "Bless you, my children, bless you!" Nothing of that sort. He just blew his old red nose in his bandanna, and told Bill to take her along, for he was glad to get rid of her, so he was, and William would be the same way mighty soon, for she was awful rough on victuals and always broke plates when she got mad.

So, you see, there really was no necessity for William to come at midnight's solemn hour, in a cab, and throw a rope ladder up to her window, and whistle three times on his fingers, and then go up, hand over hand, and bring her down in one hand and the trunk in the other, and a band-box and an unbrella under each arm, and a whole lot of bundles, and then get into the cab and drive to some distant shore. That's the way it would have been in a novel; but Bill said he wasn't on that lay, and so he just went out into the yard, and out of pure joy, skinned the cat three or four times on the grape vine arbor, and then went and got in his butcher cart, and drove Mary right down to the magistrate to get the job done for a quarter—for he said he was some on low prices, he was.

But the very queerest thing of all was, that Bill had no tall, dark ruffianly rival, with a scowling visage and black whiskers, who flew at him with drawn dagger and a horse pistol in each hand, and a muttered curse upon his lips, and cried rapidly for "Revenge! Ha! ha!" and said "Death!" and "Villain, thou diest!" Not any. There was another fellow in love with Mollie, to be sure, but he was a weak eyed young man, who had sandy hair, and wore spectacles and a choker collar, and always looked scared when you hollered at him. So, when he saw that Bill had the best of the girl's affections, he looked all serene, and said: "Go in Billy, if you hanker for her;" and as Bill was a trifle on the hanker, he sailed right in.

So William, you see, had no trouble at all—and you couldn't get up an agonizing novel about him if you tried. He didn't have any urgent business that called him to foreign lands, and so he hadn't to bid her a fond good-bye and swear always to be true, and then go away and forget her, and fall in love with a dark-eyed Italian girl, picking grapes in a vineyard, with a square towel folded on her head, while his forgotten and forsaken Mary gradually faded and pined away, and baffled the physician's skill, and grew paler, and at last, when the June roses were in bloom, lying gently down to die, while through the open window flooded in the balmy oder of jessamine and honeysuckle. And William didn't come home at last, and, filled with deathless remorse, go daily to the sweet cemetery and strew flowers on her grave, and teach his children to lisp her name—not at all. That is the way Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth would have done it, but she wasn't around. Billy was a butcher, wore a white shirt and shiny hat, and stayed at home and killed beef and sold it at a big price, and stuck to Mary, and she kept healthy, and wasn't much on the pine or the fade, while if any fellows got to lurking around, William went right out and battered them in the eyes, he did.

And then, at last, when all was over Mary didn't sit in the room, while they dressed her in white and mixed orange blossoms in her waterfall, and weep, gently while she was being married by the minister, and then get lots of presents and then go to her new house and live through all the happy years with Billy, and never know trouble or sorrow any more. Why, of course she didn't, for it wasn't her style, you see.

She just rushed up stairs, and put on her pink muslin and her old sun bonnet, and nary a bridesmaid, and went to the magistrate's, and never wept a particle, and got no presents but fifteen cents from the old man to pay her car hire, and when she got to the magistrate's she just rose off the bench and said she didn't see much use in splicing, and that she didn't like him anyhow; and so she went home, and Bill he went with her, and told her he wasn't sorry, as he didn't want her; and so they never got married, and the whole thing turned out wrong; but I couldn't help it; for I ain't to put facts on record that ain't so. But it ain't a bit like a novel I ever read, so there must have been something strange about this fellow and Mollie that I could never find out so I'll have to let it slide as it is.

Miscellaneous.

A Cool Robber.

Policeman Badger, of the tenth Station, had a bit of experience the other night which he was not fond of talking about. It was past midnight, as he was leisurely pushing his beat through Jessup street, and as he came opposite to Drayton & Fogg's jewelry store he observed gleams of a light through the chinks of the shutters, and he rapped at the door.

"Is that you, policeman?" asked a voice within.

"Yes," answered Badger.

"Well—it's only me—it's all right.—Kind o' chilly out, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"Thought so. I was just fixing the fire. Good night."

Badger said "good night," and pursued his way.

An hour afterward Badger passed through Jessup street again, and again he saw the light in the jewelry store.—It didn't look right, and he banged at the door loudly.

"Hallo!" cried the voice within. "Is it you, policeman?"

"Yes."

"All right. Won't you come in and warm you? It won't hurt anything for you to slip from your beat a few minutes."

The door was opened, and Policeman Badger entered, and he found the inmate to be a very gentlemanly looking man in a linen duster.

"Come right up to the stove, policeman. Excuse me a moment."

The man took the ash pan from the bottom of the stove and carried it down the cellar and emptied it, and when he had returned and wiped his hands, he said with a smile:

"Chilly night, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"Chilly outside, and dull inside. (Another smile.) New goods for the spring trade, and have to keep our eyes open. Lonesome work this watching all night; but I manage to find a bit of comfort in this. Won't you join me in a tip. You'll find it the pure thing."

And the man in the duster produced a black bottle and a tumbler.

Policeman Badgar partook, and having wiped his lips, and given his fingers a new warming, he left the store and resumed his beat, satisfied that all was right in Drayton & Fogg's.

But the morning brought a new revealment, Drayton & Fogg's store had been robbed, during the night, of six thousand dollars' worth of watches and jewelry; and though Policeman Badgar carries in his mind an exact deguerreotype of the robber, the adroit rascal has not yet been found.—New Yord Ledger.

An Enthusiastic Missourian Runs up a Corner on Grant Stock, and takes all the bets he can find—he Stumps the exchange.

About one thousand merchants daily assemble on 'Change in this city, and, as a matter of course, every foreground topic comes generally under discussion there.

Yesterday we happened to be standing near an earnest body of disputants who were banterin gone another over the probability of Grant carrying Missouri. The company seemed pretty evenly divided in opinion.

"I'll bet a hundred dollars," said one earnest Greeley Democrat, "that Missouri goes for Greeley by as large a majority as Illinois does for Grant."

"Make it $500," put in a Grant man, "and I'll cover the bet."

"Done!" Money planked up instanter by both parties.

"I'd like to make a small bet," said a Grant man, "that Grant carries the State of Missouri."

"How much do you want to bet?" was immediately inquired.

"Name the sum yourself."

"Fifty dollars."

"Oh, fifty dollars is no object. You see, my friend, I'm from the country. I've come to St. Louis expressly to bet son Missouri for Grant, and fifty dollars won't pay my expenses. Now, before any bets are made, I'll be fair enough to how my figuring, and then if any gent wants to cover my pile, I'll plank down anywhere from $500 to $5,000. Ain't a mite perticklar."

"Well, show your figgers!" sang out half a dozen.

The countrymen produced a rather dingy memorandum book, and read his figures as follows:

Vote in Missouri for Grant in '68	85,671
Vote in Missouri for Seymour in 1868	59,788
Majority for Grant	25,833

"Now, gentlemen, you see, you had 59,788 votes in 1868. Since then you have gained by enfranchisement of rebels 15,000 votes. We will allow that 10,000 of the Grant German vote of the State goes for Greeley—and that's a big allowance—and gives you 84,788 votes for Greeley. Since 1868 this State has gained 75,000 voters by immigration. 25,000 of this new vote will go for Greeley, which brings the Greeley vote up to 110,000; and let me tell you, gentlemen, that's every dog-goned one you'll get.

"Now for the Republican showing: First, we get the Grant vote of 1868, less 10,000 which makes it 75,671. According to the census of 1870, we have 120,000 colored people in Missouri At least 25,000 of these are voters, and they will vote for Grant. To this I add our proportion of the new immigration, say 50,000, which gives Grant over 150,000 votes in the State. Now gentlemen, if you want to bet agin them figgers, put up your money!"

"Won't you name any majority at all?"

"Well if it'll help you out any, I'll say 5,000 majority."

There was a consultation among the Greeley men for a few minutes, and then one of them ventured to suggest that the countrymen could "plant" $500 on that proposition.

"Come and see me, boys," and out came the old red pocket-book, and five $100 bills were counted out in a twinkling.

The sum was covered by an equal amount, and a responsible stakeholder found and the bet closed.

The Grant men seemed to gain backbone at this, and a half dozen bets were immediately made that Missouri would go for Grant. There was a fascination in the countrymen's figuring and an assurance in his pluck which were as reviving as a campmeeting, and every Republican who heard the bets made went off 'Change reassured in Grant and the unchangeable Radicalism of Missouri.—St. Louis Democrat,

Henry Wilson.—A War Reminiscence.

Hon. Henry Wilson is a man who never forgets a promise or a friend. No better illustration of his character can be given than by the narration of an incident, well known in the little town of Natick, where he has so long resided, and where he is so deeply beloved. Some time in the year 1839, when Mr. Wilson was engaged in the manufacture of shoes, he was accosted by a bright little fellow of perhaps a dozen years of age, who earnestly desired employment. The boy was poorly dressed and his whole appearance denoted extreme poverty. Mr Wilson made some inquiries of him, and learned that his father was a man of intemperate habits, who neglected to provide for and cruelly ill-treated his family, and that the boy, whom we will call Rogers, desired to do what little he could to aid in their support. He was instantly engaged, and worked faithfully and cheerfully for serveral weeks, until he had earned what in those days was thought a neat little sum of money, which his poor mother would be, of the greatest assistance.

When, however, the fondly anticipated "payday" came Rogers was cruelly disappointed by his father entering the factory and demanding his son's wages of Mr. Wilson, to whom of course, he was obliged to accede. The father then commanded his son to return home that night, and left the factory.

Completely crushed by this blow, the boy wept bitterly, and began his preparations for his departure. While thus engaged Mr. Wilson approached him and said, "Rogers you have been a good faithful boy, and I am sorry to have you go. If ever you want a friend come to me." Then, placing in his hand the full amount of his wages he had already paid the father, he hurried away before the boy could reply. The two did not meet again for more than twenty years.

In 1863, while Sergent Rogers of the ——Massachusetts was serving in the Army of the Potomac, he became detached from his regiment. While plodding wearily along in the effort to regain it, he passed by a carriage in which were two gentlemen, one of whom he recognized as Senator Wilson. Being a little ashamed of his forlorn plight, Rogers hung his head to escape recognition. This movement attracted the attention of the Senator, who stopped the carriage and calling the sergeant to him, he inquired:

"What regiment do you belong to?"

"———Massachusetts."

"Where is it stationed?"

"I do not know, sir; I have been detached, and am trying to find it."

For a moment the Senator seemed to be trying to recall his features, and then asked:

"Is your name Rogers?"

Receiving an affirmative reply, he exclaimed: "My friend, where have you been these years?" and the hands of the Senator and sergeant were cordially clasped. Mr. Wilson's next question was one which many a poor soldier has heard him ask: "Rogers, do you need any money?"

"No Senator; I look a little rough, but I have a few greenbacks left yet."

"Well that is good. I will see you again," and, with a hearty good-by, the Senator drove on.

The same day Rogers rejoined his regiment. About a week later he was summoned to the tent of his colonel; repairing there, he once more found Senator Wilson. "Sergeant Rogers," he said, "I have the pleasure of presenting to you your commission as lieutenant in your regiment, and if your future record is as honorable as in the past, I shall never regret the appointment." Utterly surprised at his good fortune, so entirely unexpected, the recruit could find no words to express his thanks; but his brilliant after career was a sufficient indication that the confidence placed in him was well bestowed, and he will ever remember with gratitude the kindness extended to him, by one whose whole-life has been spent in aiding the poor and in the service of the down-trodden and oppressed.

Abstract of Election Law.

We publish below an abstract of the new election law. As this law is very important, we will keep this article standing a few weeks in our columns.

The following are the only qualifications required of any voter in the State: He must be a male person twenty-one years of age or upwards; a native or naturalized citizen of the United States; and must have resided in this State twelve months next preceeding the election and thirty days in the County in which he offers to vote. Any person possessing the qualifications is entitled to register and vote in the township in which he lives.

An election shall be held on the first Thursday in August, which is the 1st day of the month, for the following officers, viz:

1st, Governor; 2d. Lieut. Governor; 3rd. Secretary of State; 4th. Auditor; 5th. Treasurer; 6th. Superintendent of Public Instruction; 7th. Superintendent of Public Works; 8th. Attorney General; 9th. members of Congress in the several districts; 10th. members of the General Assembly in the several counties and districts; 11th. For each county, a Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, five Commissioners, Coroner and Sheriff.

County Commissioners may establish, alter, discontinue or create such separate places of election in their Counties as they may deem expedient. Thirty days notice of any change must be made either by publication in some paper or by handbill posted in three places in the County. There shall be at least one polling place in every township as nearly central as possible, and in every city containing more than 3000 inhabitants, there shall be a polling place in each ward.

The Commissioners of each County shall, on or before the 1st Monday in July, 1872, select one Justice of the Peace of each township or election precinct to act as Registrar therein. Where there are not enough Justices, the Commissioners shall appoint some person to act as Registrar.

The names of the persons selected shall be published at the Court House door.

The Register so appointed shall revise the existing registration books of their precinct or township, so the books shall show an accurate list of voters previously registered in such precinct or township and still residing therein—Such voters shall not be required to register again. The Registrars shall, between sunrise and sunset on each day, (1st day of July, 1872, to the 1st day in August, 1872, keep open the books for the registration of any voters residing in the township or precinct, entitled to register, whose names have not been registered in such township or precinct before, or do not appear in the revised list. No voter can register or vote in any other precinct or township than the one in which he is an actual and bona fide resident on the day of election and no certificates of registration shall be given.

The Judges and Registrars shall, on the Saturday preceding the election, from nine o'clock A. M., attend at the polling place of their township or precinct, with the registration books, when and where the said books shall be open to the inspection of the electors of the township or precinct, and any elector shall be allowed to object to any name appearing on the said books. Where there is an objection the Registrar shall enter opposite the name so objected to the word "challenged," and shall appoint a time and place, on or before election day, when he, together with the judges of election, shall hear and decide upon such objection. Due notice of the time and place and hearing shall be given the person objected to.

The name of electors appearing on the registration books may also be challenged at any other time and on the day of election. If any person challenged shall be found not duly qualified his name shall be erased from the registration book.

The County Commissioners on or before the 1st Monday in July shall appoint four judges of election, two of whom shall be of a different political party from the Registrar, for each polling place who shall with the Registrar, conduct the election—they shall keep poll books in which they shall enter the name of every person voting, &c.

Every person applying for registration shall take the following oath:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith—that I have been a resident in the State of North Carolina for twelve months, and in the county of —— for thirty days, and that I have not registered for this election in any other precinct, and that I am an actual and bona fide resident of —— Township—so help me God.

No person shall register on the day of election, unless by satisfactory evidence he can show that he has become twenty-one years of age on that day, or for other reasons has become entitled to register.

The polls shall be open on the day of election from 9 o'clock in the morning until sun-set.

There shall be four ballot boxes at each polling place.

Candidates will be voted for as follows: Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Superintendent of Public Works and Attorney General shall be on one ballot, and deposited in a seperate box. Member of Congress shall be on one ballot and deposited in a separate box. Members of the General Assembly shall be on one ballot and deposit in a separate box. County officers shall be on one ballot and deposited in a separate box.

The tickets shall be on white paper and either written or printed, or both, and must be without device.

If two or more tickets be rolled up together, or if any ticket shall contain more names than the elector has a right to vote for, or shall have a device upon it; in either of these cases such ticket shall be thrown out and not counted.

Any Registrar or Judge of Election, or any officer failing to perform any duty required of him by the Election Act, shall on conviction be fined not more than one thousand dollars nor less than five hundred, and imprisoned not more than six nor less than two months.

Any person who shall falsely and corruptly take the oath prescribed for voters, shall be deemed guilty of perjury and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Mr. Nasby has a Fearful Dream, in which he sees Many Things.

CONFDRIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky,)
Joon 22, 1872.

I don't know wat is the matter with me; but uv late I dream more reglarly and more feroshusly than I ever did in my life. I hev hed a successhun uv nitemares ever sence I gave in my adhesion to Greeley, some uv wich wus stupenjusly friteful. I go to bed with Greeley on my mind, and dream dreams so horrible that I awake with cold swets onto me, and shivrin ez tho I hed the ague. Nite afore last Greeley appeared to me with hoofs, horns and a tail. He perched hisself on my stumick, squattin like a hidjus toad, and puttin on his spectacles deliberately read me, from an old copy of the Triboon, six yards uv his own editorials on the slavery question. He finally, sailed off thro the air, shrekin "Lost! Lost!" Whether he referred to me or hisself ez "Lost," I reely don't know. Ef he felt ez mean in my company ez I did in hizzen, the remark would embrace both uv us.

Last nite I had another friteful vission. We hev a family in the villiage wich don't live in harmony. The husband got intoxicated some years ago, and knowin' that it isn't the gettin drunk that hurts a man, but gettin sober, hez dodged that trouble by stayin drunk. His principal amoosement is whalin his wife. The novelty of this havin worn off, yesterday mornin he gave her a couple uv ounces of arsenic. Vaulting ambishen o'erleaped herself—his excessive liberality defeated his purpus. The dose wus too big—it sickened her—she vomited, and lived, and whaled him within an inch uv his life. I wus at the house, and late in the evenin left, stoppin at Deekin Pogram's where we took a ginooine Kentucky tea, wich consisted principally uv korn whiskey and cold biled pork, From thence I went home and retired, with my head fall uv the pison, and Greeley, mixed in about ekal proporshens. Fallin asleep, I dreamed.

Methawt I wuz in a bildin, where, I coodent make out. Stretched out onto a couch and kiverd with a flag wuz the body uv an enormous giant—the most huge and comprehensive giant I had ever seen even in dreams. His legs wus like pillars, his arms wus like beams and his hands spread out like the map uv our wunst happy but now opprest country. He semed to be in the last stages uv a fearful sickness. He hed bin, in his day, a giant uv immense strength, and wus even in his illness ez handsome a human bein ez I ever sot eyes onto. But it wuz evident that he wuz goin fast. He drawd his breath painfully, and from ugly wounds on his body blood oozed slowly but depletinly.

"Who is he?" I asked uv the Goddess uv Liberty, which sot at his head in deep mournin and weepin violently.

"That's Republikanism," she answered, "the only actooal, ginuine friend I ever hed—the only one who reely stood by me. But they are killin him. That gash in his back Chase gave him; that stab in the side wuz inflicted by Randall; the itch wich so irritates him he caught from the Blairs, and—good Heaven! here comes another squad uv his enemies!"

I looked, and lo! Boss Tweed, Hoffman, Seymour, Hendricks, and a dozen uv my pertikeler friends were comin in. They had masks on their faces, made uv New York Triboons, but I knowed em for all that. Hoffman seezed the head uv the prostrate giant, while Tweed poured down his throat a nauseous flooid from a jug marked "Cincinnati," fairly forcin it down him. The victim shuddered ez he swallered it, ez tho it wuz his last and final shudder.

"Yoo've killed him!" shrieked the Goddess.

"We bleeve we hev, madam!" shouted the fellows in korus, pullin of their masks, "and you'll foller him within a yeer."

"Kill her now!" yelled one uv 'em, who wuz evidently from Gregory, "she ain't got her champion to save her this time."

And they seezed her and gagged and bound her, with friteful yells.

And in their joy they execooted a wild demoniac war dance about the corpse, wich I jined, with an ajility I didn't know I was possessed. But jist ez our [illegible] wuz at its highest, the corpse gev a fearful gasp—a convulshen uv tenfold power. He riz up from the couch, assoomed a sittin position, his face uv a deathly paleness, and with a retch wich shook the buildin, vomited ez I never saw a human bein vomit.

"Good Heavens!" shreeked Tweed; "We,ve given him too much of the pizen, and it's actin ez an emetic."

The sick man gave heave after heave, and in the flood uv bile wich he ejected I saw Greeley, Gratz Brown, Schurz, Cox and a score uv sich. A very gentle heave landed Schurz and Gratz Brown on the floor; a little bigger one threw out Fenton, and a gigantic one, with convulsed the sufferer from center to circumference, histed out Greeley. But, once out, it wuz a tremenjus relief to the sick individooal. Immejitly a great change came over him. The moment they wuz out uv his stumick the palenis disappeard—helthy color came to his cheeks, and his weaknis all left him. Glarin about furiously, he put one foot on Greeley, and Brown and their mizable companions, ez a man crushes beetles, with the other, he kicked the jug out the window, and wuz followed by Tweed and his friends, who went through the same window, propelled by the same motive power. He cut the bonds off the goddess, stopt her mournin, and wuz in the act uv embracin uv her when I awoke.

I lay for hours cogitatin over the dream. Wuz it prophecy or biled pork? That's the conundrum. Is it a type uv judgement to come, or is it a disordered stumich? Hev we dosed the Republikin party too freely with Cincinnati, and hev wat we fondly hoped wood be the pizen to kill our great enemy, got to be an emetic wich will rid him uv the bad humors wich wuz a destroyin him, and make him stronger than ever?

It troubled me so that I couldn't sleep. I tossed about in the most restless and frantic manner, and cood only induce the gentle goddess to tetch my eyelids after four solid drinks from a jug which I keep in my room, wich is marked "Cincinnati" by no means. [illegible] grant that my dream is simply a baseless fabric.—Toledo Blade

THE MEANNESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

In the personal assaults that have been made upon Gen. Grant, upon his character, upon his family, upon all that is connected with him, there is nothing singular. The purest, the best and the most illustrious of his predecessors were subjected to the same vituperation, and it will in this case, as in the cases before, recoil upon the slanderers, and arouse in the American people that just indignation that honest men always feel against a political warfare carried on by personal calumny. It seems, when we read these atrocious calumnies, that they are exceptional; but we have only to turn back to the records of previous elections to see how history repeats itself. It is the old story over again.

Perhaps the meanest of these assaults are those upon the daughter of Gen. Grant, a girl not out of her schooldays, who has gone to Europe with some friends of [illegible], and who has received from [illegible] there the attentions that might naturally be extended to the child of an illustrious soldier and the head of a great nation. Nothing could be more modest, unpresuming and ladylike than her demeanor; but she is the daughter of the President, and neither her sex nor her tender years, nor the perfect propriety of her conduct, can protect her from those who fasten the fangs of calumny and insult upon everything that bears the name of Grant. We do not envy the feelings with which men engaged in this sort of business must regard themselves.

There are a good many ways of carrying on the Presidential fight. This is undoubtedly one of them. But, in our judgment, the men who think that they can balance the services of Gen. Grant in the field and in the cabinet by insulting his daughter will find that they have miscalculated the character and temper of the American people. Such infamous conduct will neither harm nor help Gen. Grant, but it will excite toward the perpetrators the indignation and disgust of all true and right-minded men.

THE DISTRESS OF THE DEMOCRACY.

It is almost pitiable to witness the terrible distress of some of the Democratic leaders. "Give me jew or gentile, dog or devil, I care not which, so we beat GRANT," was the mournful and profane exclamation of the noted extra BILLY SMITH, in the Virginia Democratic Convention the other day. It was in this uncomplimentary manner that he gave in his adheasion to the GREELEY movement, and announced his disgust with the candidate. After him came one Col. LACY, who accepted the 'white hat" candidate with the remark, "I can eat crow, but I don't hanker after it."

These remarks are fair indications of the spirit in which Democratic leaders throughout the nation are accepting what is called the "Liberal" candidate. Seeing him surrounded in New York by the Tammany gang, and knowing the aptness of that crowd in the manufacture of votes, they have become victims of the delusion that he can be elected. Ravenous with the protracted hunger of a dozen years, they are ready to undergo any amount of abasement, to secure even a chance to get once more into the fat fields of public plunder where they reveled so long.

PLEASE EXPLAIN.

Two years ago the Democratic candidates for the Legislature promised the people that they, if elected, would reduce the expenses of the Government and lighten the taxes of all. They were elected. We now call upon them to explain the following facts and figures:

1st. How comes it that the expenses paid by the State on account of the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb and Blind for the year of 1871, under Democratic managment, were Nine Thousand Dollars more than they were for the year 1870, under Republican management?

2d. How comes it that the expenses paid by the State on account of the Insane Asylum for the year 1871 were Twenty-one Thousand Dollars more than in 1870, under Republican management?

3rd. How comes it that the Penitentiary cost the State Thirty-nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars more for the year 1872, under Democratic rule, than for the year 1870, under Republican rule?

The figures show that these three State Institutions, cost the tax payers of the State Seventy Thousand Dollars more for the year 1871, when the Democratic party had control of them, than for the year 1870, when the Republican party had control of them.

Col. CARTER says he don't propose to arouse any enthusiasm in this campaign. That was well put in—after finding all his galvanized efforts failing in that direction. When he first got on his pins he tried hard but the enthusiasm wouldn't come. So he gives it up. Wise CARTER.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY FINANCES.

We alluded sometime ago to the subject of our County finances, and spoke approvingly of the manner in which they had been managed. Since then, we have examined the matter with care, and are more than ever convinced that we cannot speak in too high praise of the present County officers.

At March term 1868 of the old County Court, a little over $10,000 were levied on property for County purposes. The present constitution went into operation in August 1868. Among the first acts of the first board of County Commissioners was to strikeoff one half of this tax, and collect only $5,000. The year of 1868 was one of short crops, and great scarcity of money, and the course of the Commissioners in their releiving the people was well worthy of praise.

The Legislature of 1869 authorized the issue of $7,000 in County bonds. Only $5,000 were issued, and these extend through five years, only $1,000 falling due any one year. These bonds were exchanged for County paper which was due, and a premium of ten per cent realized on the bonds—thus making for the County five hundred dollars.

When the present regime was inaugurated, and the new County officers took charge, it was supposed upon all the information to be had, that the County owed of the old debt contracted under the old County Court system, about $15,000. Under authority granted by the Legistature, the Commissioners levied a special tax for the last three years, to pay off this debt. And this special tax has been more than as much each year, as that levied for County purposes. It turned out however that the old orders out amounted to over $30,000 instead of the amount at first supposed. And these are now believed to be all paid, excepting perhaps about $1000, and there are now outstanding bonds amounting to about $3000. This would leave the County now owing about $4,000.

The tax levied in the last three years for all purposes amount in gross in round

numbers to about	$39,000
Bonds, orders, outstanding say	$4,000
	$43,000

CONTRA.

Old County orders cancelled and carried over	$25,000.
For purchase of balance of Court House Square	$2,900
For building Long Bridge $250—bridge over Charles Creek $100—work on Desert road $250—repairs of Knobs Creek bridge Newbegun Creek bridge, Symons Creek bridge & others over $350,	$1,000
For all County expenses of all sorts for three years	$14,100

or less than $5,000 a year and less by nearly one half than ever before.

It will thus be seen that the County officers have run the County government for the last three years for less by nearly one half than it ever cost before and that they have purchased the entire balance of Court House Square and paid for it, have expended over $1,000 for roads and bridges and paid it; and have paid off all the County debt amounting to nearly $30,000 excepting about $4,000.

In place of being worth 40c in the $100, in 1868, County orders have sold readily by thousands in the last six months at from 85c to 95c in the $100. This year we learn that they will be worth more still.

Those who have been readers of our paper will remember that the County Commissioners, through the Clerk, the Register of Deeds, have published annually every September, a full financial statement itemized of all County matters giving the amount of taxes collected—how and to whom—and for what purposes paid out etc., so that the tax payers of the County could see for themselves every year what became of the taxes levied and collected.

WON'T VOTE FOR CARTER.

Col. DAVID M. CARTER, the Democratic candidate for Congress, is a representative of the aristocratic element of the State and looks down with contempt upon the poorer classes. He is not only bitterly opposed to the homestead—the poor man's only hope—but he has taken active steps to have this little reservation sold, leaving in tears and without shelter the wives and children of the poor debtors while their husbands and fathers he would have languish in prison until his shylock demands of the "pound of flesh" was satisfied. The poor men of his own and adjoining counties have not forgotten the man who has not hesitated to drag them from their cabin homes to satisfy the bloody greed of those who unfortunately held them for a few paltry dollars. Nor will the laboring men of the District agree to put in place and power a man who would not hesitate to grind them in the dust of poverty and send them penniless upon the cold charities of the world. Never.

FOUR BALLOT BOXES.

The sixteenth section of "an act concerning the election and registration in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two," is as follows:

"Sec. 16 The State officers, viz: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Superintendent of Public Works, and Attorney General, shall be voted for on one ballot. The members of Congress for their respective districts, shall be voted for on one ballot. The members of the General Assembly for their respective counties and districts shall be voted for on one ballot. The county officers, viz: Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, five Commissioners, Coroner, and Sheriff, shall be voted for on one ballot. The ballots shall be on white paper, and may be printed or writen, or partly writen or partly printed, and without device."

—Every voter should be familiar with this section. Voters should be careful to deposit their ballots in the right box. Ballots deposited in the wrong box will not be counted. Registrars and inspectors of the election should see to it that every ballot is deposited in the right box.

OUR NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS.

Hon. CLINTON L. COBB'S course in Congress has been both distinguished and honorable. His public acts prove him to be well qualified for the position. He has ever been found at the post of duty and has proved faithful to his constituents. The latter have shown their appreciation of him by renominating him for the third time.

Of course he had a few men to oppose him. But now that he is the nominee that opposition ceases. Now that he is the candidate of the party regularly nominated, every good Republican feels that it is no longer a personal matter, but the wish of the majority expressed in the only legal way known in political law, and all will rally to his support.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Just before going to press we received the proceedings of the Washington County Republican Convention. The following is the ticket nominated: For House of Representatives Col. D. C. Guyther; Sheriff, John M. Bateman; Treasurer, Levi Jackson Jun; Register of Deeds, W. F. Sanderson; Coroner, Samuel Wiggins; Surveyor, Thos. Bembridge, and for Commissioners, James E. Jackson, J. R. Newberry, Geo. Mc Danieis, E. H. Leary and J. J. Woodley.

While many of our denizens felt that they were sweltering last week in the heat they ought to be thankful that they did not suffer anything in comparison to what was experienced in many of the Northern cities. The severity of the heat, coupled with its long continuance, proved fearfully fatal in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Philadelphia, and other places. The New York Tribune says:

The average death rate of this city is about 25 for every thousand inhabitants; but for the past two weeks it has been nearly double that, and for the first four days of the present week it has been higher than was ever known in the city, except during seasons of pestilence.

This District is being flooded with a vile Democratic campaign sheet issued from Raleigh called the Blasting Powder. Among the thoughtless and uninformed its extravagant statements and reckless falsehoods may tend to mislead and embitter, but among those who are at all familiar with the history of the past ten years its misrepresentations and calumnies can do no harm. Desperate indeed are the straits of the Greeley-ized Democracy of North Carolina when they feel it necessary to resort to such means to carry the State. It will fail,

Truth will triumph over all
And Justice will be done.

An Administration which has reduced the national debt $332,000,000 during the past thirty-nine months and at the same time reduced taxation to the enormous amount of $149,000,000, and also made the peace expenses of the Government less per capita in currency than they were under former Administrations in gold, is the Administration which the people will continue four years longer by re-electing President GRANT.

Time was when we would have been less surprized to see cattle prefering tobacco to grass, and young chickens taking to water like ducks, and stock gambling become a means of grace and the arch-angel Gabriel button-holing the devil than to see a loving union between the Democratic party and its ancient enemy HORACE GREELEY.

When the member of the Republican Legislature took $7.00 a day, the farmer sold his wheat for $2.00 a bushel, taking only three and a half bushels to pay for a day. When Democrats took $5.00 a day, the farmer sold his wheat for only $1.25, taking FOUR BUSHELS to pay for a day.

Let the people of North Carolina remember that A. S. MERRIMON, Democratic candidate for Governor, tried to raise money to test the constitutionality of the Homestead clause in our Constitution, in the Supreme Court of the United States.

Who put the thumbs of Union men's wives under the fence, because they would not tell rebel officers where their husbands were concealed? Collett Leventhrope, the Democratic candidate for Auditor.

Judge DAVIS and Gov. PARKER, the Labor Reform Candidates for President and Vice President, have declined the nominations. A conference of the party has been called to meet at New York on the 30th inst.

Judge McCUNN, one of the Tammany Ring Judges of New York, was impeached and removed from office last week. It so affected him that he sickened and died a few days after.

We have reports from the second Senatorial District of a very favorable character. J. B. RESPESS is making a vigorous canvass and his prospects of election are decidedly encouraging.

HORACE GREELEY endorsed by the Democracy will be simply that party's candidate, for the body of an animal must control the tail—not the tail the body.

The Republican party passed the National Educational Bill, that gives every American child opportunities to be educated.

The Republicans of North Carolina, headed by TOD R. CALDWELL, defeated the Ku Klux attempt to destroy the State Constitution last year.

Labor has been protected and laboringmen elevated under Republican rule.

Lieutenant Frederick Grant and his sister Miss Nellie were received on Independence Day by President Thiers of the French Republic, and entertained in a most pleasing and complimentary manner. Mr. Thiers was in a pleasant mood, and spoke eulogistically of several of our leading citizens whom he met in former years.

Motto of the Greeley Democracy—"We stoop to conquer."

The Congressional Canvas in Perquimans.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

As per announcement the Congressional Canvas was "unfurled" at this place on the 2nd inst. The Hon. C. L. Cobb made the opening speech and fully sustained his course in Congress, and also ably vindicated that of President Grant's administration.

The rejoinder of his competitor Col. D. M. Carter failed to meet the issue—he indulged in vindictive abuse of the Republican party, of Grant's administration which tickeled the ears of the conservatives present—many of whom had come from Hertford and beyond, expecting to witness a complete Cobb crushing operation by their famed giant. Carter's panegyrie of Horace Greely was truly luscious—of "him whom every body loved so well." He even made him a second William Penn, but those of the Society of Friends present were not shallow enough to catch at the bait.

At Hertford on the 3rd, Col. Carter made the opening speech and was very vociferous. The Hon. C. L. Cobb in his reply effectually cleared away the smoke and conclusively showed that his opponents thunder had only reverberated upon himself and friends. Perquimans will vote up an increased majority for Cobb.

A Reply to "W."

"W" the author of an article, written on the Republican County Meeting held in Windsor, Bertie county, and published in the Economist of the 18th ult., parades before the public a contemptible and disjointed combination of positive falsehood, compatible with his own malignity and perverted nature. It is true there were beings present who endeavored to convert the regular and formal course of business and the harmony which was due the occasion into discord, confusion and tumult, and "W." was the principal agent in this work, acting a part similar to that of Satan in the Garden of Eden. Premeditating and maturing a hellish purpose, such as are attributable to devils only, he contracted with a colored man named (say R.) "W's" emmisary and prime agent, who, for the consideration of a quart of whiskey and $10 (latter, out of which he was defrauded by "W.") was to enter the meeting drunk, and convert the proper and legitimate order of business into a state of discord and confusion. The bargain arranged and sealed, and the hour of business arrived, "W" in company with his colored agent appeared upon the scene. "W" located himself in a corner of the court house. When the meeting was called to order the colored agent introduced himself as agreed, bent upon his purpose. During his drunken efforts and insane gesticulations and vociferations, trying to establish discord and disorder, "W" sat in the corner imitating an automation in motion and an o'rang o'tang in physiognomical distortions. Near the close of the meeting, having drank deep, full and bitterly of the results of his own conspiracy, with a convulsive effort he instantly sprang from the room, his eyes flooding with tears of disappointment, no doubt lamenting some political misfortune, probably the defeat of himself or some relative in the nomination of candidates for Legislature. After a deliberate and matured meditation on the matter, "W" resolved on avenging his disappointment by belching forth his indignations, mixed with calumny and aspersing principal members of the meeting, and the "General" in particular. But his efforts have proved abortive. The General was no boot lick in the Confederate army as "W" asserted in his letter to the Economist, and facts expose the falsity of his assertion. The General remained at home, transacting his own private business until conscription swept the country and sent him, as every other conscript—a private into the army. He was not paid to go, nor did he pay for any position he held. He went opposed to the war from beginning to end, beleiving it wrong, uncalled for a criminal, and with the same convictions, without any pecuniary compensation whatever, returned home. The General did not speculate, cheat the people or defraud the Government. He did not, with or without deception, assume the honorary vestment of secesh loyalty, or court, flatter or honor the confederate officials and humble himself at their feet, such a course being an available requisite for exemption from the army, or speculate, extort and charge double fees for his services.

Thus deeds and history proves who were the boot licks of the confederate officials. Most Respectfully,

Z.

Camden County Republican Convention.

Pursuant to notice the Republicans of Camden county met in Convention at the Court House on Saturday June the 29th, 1872 at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Convention was called to order by A. P. Cherry the Chairman of the County Executive Committee, when on motion Matchet Taylor was called to the chair and E. J. Barco requested to act as Secretary.

The chairman expressed the object of the meeting to be to name a suitable person to represent the people of Camden county in the House of Representatives of the next Legislature of North Carolina, and candidates for the county offices.

On motion a Committee of ten persons from each Township were appointed by the chairman to bring forward names to fill the aforesaid offices.

On motion the Committee retired a short time and reported as follows, to wit:

For Representative, Simeon A. Jones.
" Register of Deeds, M. N. Sawyer.
" Treasurer, Dr. James F. Garrenton.

For Surveyor, E. J. Barco.
" Coroner, J. W. Etheredge.
" Commissioners of the County, 1 Thos. O. Garret, 2 Asa Knight, 3 Walton McPherson, 4 Willoughby Sawyer, 5 John Mitchel.

The report of the Committee was unanimously adopted. C. W. Grandy Jr. was called for to address the Convention who responded in a very patriotic address of short duration dealing heavy blows upon the Democratic Party.

On motion the NORTH CAROLINIAN of E. City and the Carolina Era, were requested to publish the proceedings of this Convention.

The Convention then adjourned sinie die.

MATCHET TAYLOR, Chm'n.
E. J. BARCO, Sec'y.

The Carolina Era will please copy.

Hon. Clinton L. Cobb.

Dear Sir.—As a citizen of North Carlina "on duty" at Washington, I naturally feel a deep interest in my State being represented in Congress by men who can do something for the advancement of her prosperity and material interest. The re-nomination therefore of the Hon Clinton L. Cobb was a source of great satisfaction not only to his personal friends, but to all who feel an interest in the prosperity and welfare of the "Old North State." Mr. Cobb has made for himself, a reputation among the Republicans of the Nation as one of the working men of the House, and his influence not only in Congress, but among leading men generally is well known here; and N. C. can send no better man the National councils, no one who can do more for her interest than he can. A new man in Congress, unless he should come here with a reputation already national in its character, can accomplish nothing for the benefit of the people of his State or section and spends his first term in Congress (and very frequently his second) in finding out how to "do it." I trust the people of the first District will be wide awake enough to their own interest to see that Mr. Cobb returns to Congress.

Very truly yours.
ALLAN RUTHERFOD.
3rd Auditor Treasury.

The State Dept—Who is Responsible—Who got the Bonds—Who Squandered them.

There has been much misrepretation in regard to our State debt and the manner in which it was created that we have concluded to make the statement which will be found below. For the facts which we state we challenge contradiction, and if this true exposition is "cold comfort" to the howlers of stop thief, lying scoundrels who had so much to say about the squandering of money by Republicans, we cannot help it.

THE OLD DEBT.

In the first place let us see what would have been the State debt if "our own people" could have had their way. The whole recognized debt of the State, July 1st, 1865, was $10,899,500, to which add Internal Improvement Bonds, authorized but not issued ($717,000,) and the debt of the State created during the Confederacy for war purposes, $18,117,839, and on July 1st, 1865, there would have been a total of $29,734,336. To this add the interest to July 1st, 1872, (seven years at six per cent,) $12'488,421, and our debt would stand at a total of $42,222,757.

But in addition to this there was the loan authorized by the Legislature of 1855 to the Western N. C. Rrailroad, amounting to $4,000,000. Of this only $2,268,000 had been issued prior to 1868, leaving $1,732,000 which was issued after reconstructien and counted on the addition to the debt made by the Republicans. This with the interest for four years amounts to $2,147,680, which added to the $42,222,757, makes the total State debt, as it would have stood under Democratic management, $44,370,437.

This is what the State debt would have been if those who now desire to get control of the State had remained in control and had their own way. For it must be remembered that it was only on compulsion that the Confederate debt was repudiated. Therefore it does not lie in the mouth of any of the old regime like Merrimon, Vance or Graham to give advice concerning State finances.

THE PRESENT DEBT.

Our whole recognized State debt at the end of the last fiscal yeas was $34,886,464, or $9,481,973 less than it would have been if there had been no reconstruction acts and no Republican party. This collection of "carpet-baggers, scalawags and negroes," called the Republican party, having saved the State more than nine millions which it would have lost if the "wealth and respectability" party had been in power, we think the people of the State will be quite willing to trust them.

In 1868, when the Republicans took control of the State the debt was as recorded, $15,799,945, but to this must be added the ballance of the principal of the appropriated for the Gesteru F. C. Railroad, $1,733,000. making $17,531,845 as the actual authorixed debt of the State at the time reconstruction commenced. To this actual debt various additions, some of which were declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, while others entered into the State recount and become a legimate part of the Ttate dabt.

WHO GOT THE NEW BONDS.

Of the bonds voted by the Legislature and the Convention, a part were declared unconstiiutional by the Supreme Court.

Now let us enquire who urged the voting of those bonds, and who received them. The following are the names of the Presidents of the several roads for which the bonds were appropriated, and the amounts opposite their names are what they severally received. They are all Democrats:—

R. H. Cowan, Pres. W. C. & R. R. R.,	$2,000,000
W. J. Hawkins, Pres. Raleigh & Gaston R. R.,	3,100,000
Mallett, Pres. Western R. R.,	500,000
J: R. Stubbs, Pres Wilmingtah & Tarboro R. R.,
Belo, Pres. Northwertern N. C. R. R.,	1,440,000
Geo. W. Swepson, Pres. West. N. C. R. R.,	6,666,000
Total,	$14,256,000

Our comments on the above are brief. There is no need of comment. Everybody will see at a glance that of the appropriations $14,256,000 were voted to Democrats at their instigation, were received by them, and if any of it was squandered by them. What then becomes of the miserable, lying, and oft repeated allegation that "carpet-baggers, scalawags and negroes" have pillaged the State? Who first urged the voating of bonds? Democrets. Who received the issne of bonds? Democrats. Who squandered them if anybody? Democrats. Think os this tax payers! and let the tesposibility rest where it belongs. If necessary we can refresh our friends with a few more details on this subject which wonld be interessing.

The case then is this: First, the State is more than nine millions better off financially, than st would have been had the so-called Democracy retained entire control. Second, if there has been any fraud in the appropriations it must rest upon the heads of Democrats, since they received nearly all the bonds. To these indisputable facts we ask the attention of all honest and thinking men.

Behold the men.

Merrimon, Clingman, and others of like kidney, are by false representations and other foul means endeavoriug to produce the impression that Governor Caldwell was equally guilty with themselves in getting the appropriation bills for railroads passed, by which Swepson and Littlefield were enabled to steal millions of money from the State. A sufficient answer to all their vile aspersions is the fact, that as soon as Caldwell became Governor he had Swepson arrested and used all means at his command to secure the arrest of Littlefield, to make them answer for their crimes; while Merrimon and Clingman rushed to the defense of the boss swindler, Swepson, to protect and shield him from the penalties of the law which he so richly merited. Does any same man believe that Gov. Caldwell would have been so vigorous in the prosecution of these criminals if he had been implicated in the least degree with them? Would he not have been afraid to do so lest he himself should be exposed? Did not Merrimon and Clingman on the other hand come to Swepson's rescue from motives of personal interest, to cover up and hide their friend's rascality in order to prevent an exposure of their complicity in the matter? Is it not a matter passing strauge and beyond the comprehension of houest men, that Judge Merrimon and the Honorable Thomas Clingman should both have been examined by the Fraud Commission, and when under oath and sworn to tell all they knew about these railroad swindlers, that neither of them knew or said one word about Gov. Caldwell having anything to do in the matter? Did these honorable gentlemen tell the truth when they were under oath or are they romancing now?

Why did Gen. Clingman, when on examination before the Welker Committee in 1869, refused to answer a question put to him with regard to what he knew about the passage of a bill affecting the Western North Carolina Rrailroad, but instead of answering said, "That he was consulted confidentially by one person with reference to some bill relating to the subject embraced in this bill, and that he was especially requested to consider the application as a confidential one between a client and his attorney. Such information as was confided to him in that interview he did not feel at liberty to disclose, nor even to mention the name of the applicant' (See Legislative Documents No. 35, page 3, session 1869 -'70.)

Let the public remember that although Gen. Clingman threw himself upon his reserved rights as a lawyer to shield a scoundrel in 1869 yet he had not been known as a practicing lawyer since his election to Congress in 1843.

Big Medicine.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

The undesighed would respectfully offer to an afflicted nation, the celebrated Greeley Pills. This valuable emetic has been prepared from vegetable products, gathered exclusively by the great Doctor himself. The rare fungus from which it is distilled, is grown only on his agricultural experiment at Chappaqua, and concocted and promulgated at the Tribune office, New York city.

This valuable remedy has been found peculiarly efficatious in cases of Sore Head, Official Scriptures, Chronic Flatulency, Executive Looseness, Pedantic Discontent, and General Disability.

We append the following extracts from letters—unsolicited—commendatory of this remarkable remedy, and recording some of its most wonderful cures:

Have been for seven years afflicted with Malignant Animosity against "Carpet Baggers," "Scalawags" and Yankees, * * * one dose has completely cured me, I am now perfectly harmless. Would recommend the Greeley Pill in all similar cases.

Z. B. VANCE.

The Greeley Pill has proved of great benefit to us, after the nauseous doses we have been compelled to swallow during the past year. They have relieved us of a grasping, reaching sensation, we hope permanently.

WM. M. TWEED & CO.

This is the most active medicine that I have ever taken. One box has relieved me of the accumulated bile of two years, a complete set of Plutarch's Lives, the second book of the Iliad, and large fragments of the Odyssey. I am inexpressbly relieved.

CHAS. SUMNER.

They have cured me of a "nameless something," and inspired me with a devout love for my native land, (Prussia.) I think that I could die for her. I recommend them to babies in arms.

CARL SCHURZ.

We have selected a few of the most remarkable letters from the accumulated mass on our hands. We are constantly receiving others from the disaffected members of the Republican and formerly radid Democratic parties, which we shall make use of from time to time, as the exigencies of the case demand.

CAUTION.

These pills should not be taken in too large doses, as their too free use may result in intense nausea and political death, and will only be in use during the present summer months. After frost they will prove of little value, as the tendency is to bring on a collapse after the month of November, and materially affect the spirits of those who may swallow them during hot weather.

Billious.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated. You are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousnesz." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As fine remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the lever strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How Unnecessary the Anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally, this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

From the information sent from Washington concerning Indian affairs, it seems that there is ground for apprehension of some trouble along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad, the building of which the Indians are reported to be resolved to resist.

THE NEW YORK TIMES.

DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY,

THIS JOURNAL is now thoroughly identified with the greatest political necessity of the hour—uncompromising warfare against all forms of corruption, whether in national or local government. For years past the TIMES has been exposing tne demoralizing schemes of self-iuterested polittcians, and its recent warfare upon the Tammuny Democrats has beeu received with universal approval. It has adhered to the pledge given in its original prospectus, more than twenty years ago, that the public should be truly represented, and their interests faithfully guarded through its columns. Its record has been pure and honorable, and she highest oim its proprietors is to render it more and more worthy of its past history, and of the confidence which the public repose in it. Two out of three of the oniginel proprietors still direct its policy, and guid it on all public questions. They purpose that the TIMES shall continue to keep clear of all narrow and unworthy influences and eliques, and aim to represent the great body of the public, as distinguished from personal factions. It occupies a perfectly independent posions, and is free to speak the truth on all sujecte and about all men. Its greadly increased circulation throughout the country adds to its power and influences. It will continne to be a faithful exponent of Republican principles, recognizing the claims of American industry in adjusting the sources of revenue; and it will advocate with untiring enegry every cause which tendi to further the welfare of the people.

CAMPAIGN EDITION.

During the ensuing Presidential Canvass, we shall publish a SPECIAL WEEKLY EDITION for the convenience of those who desire the latest and most trustwortho political intelligence.

The CAMPAIGN EDITION of the NEW YORK TIMES will be furnished to mail subscribers, for six months, for the sum of FIFTY CENTS. All cppies sent to the same Post-office to be mailed to one address.

NORTH CAROLINIAN
WEDNESDAY, JULY 10, 1872.

☞ TO NORTHERN VISITORS. ☜

Elizabeth City is 50 miles South East of Norfolk, Va. Parties coming here from the North should take passage on the Bay line Steamers which leave Baltimore at 4 P. M. every evening, and arrive at Portsmouth the next morning in time to connect with the Elizabeth City Steamers, daily.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

Election Notice.
5000 Agents Wanted.
I. A. Cohn.

Local and Personal.

☞ Do not fail to read the abstract of the Election laws on our first page this week.

☞ After a two weeks rest we are glad to see the Economist put in an appearance again.

☞ There are several articles in our Agricultural column this week, each of which are worth a year's subscription to the NORTH CAROLINIAN.

☞ A word to correspondents! If you would be pungent, be brief, for it is with words as with sunbeams—the more they are condensed, the deeper they burn.

☞ GEO. D. POOL JR. sent us a cotton stalk on the 4th inst., in bloom and measuring 4½ feet in length. AMBROSE HOLLOWAY, of Nixonton, also sent one nearly as tall.

☞ As the Baltimore Convention was held yesterday and "old Horace" no doubt nominated, we expect to see a pretty general donning of White Hats by the Democrats hereabout. But before putting them on we suggest that they write "Ichabod" on their hat bands, for verily their glory has departed.

☞ The postage law has been so changed that hereafter the postage on circulars, newspapers and other transient printed matter which under the old law was two cents for every four ounces or less, is now to be one cent for every two ounces or less. Small circulars which formerly cost two cents to mail, can be sent for one cent.

☞ A correspondent from Perquimans writes us saying:

"Hon. C. L. COBB has made two decidedly effective speeches in this county and has fully satisfied his party friends and some of the opposition that Col. CARTER is unable to demolish him. We feel that he is much stronger than he was before.

☞ We hear very flattering reports from Captain GRANDY'S Senatorial canvass. Our correspondent informs us that his competitor Maj. YEATES has met a foeman worthy of his steel—that the Captain is dealing vigorous and telling blows against the Dolly Varden Democracy. The ill health of Mr. CHAMBERLAIN has prevented him from meeting the first appointments, but he begins the canvas this week. See the times and places of speaking at the bottom of first column on our second page.

☞ Mr. COBB is making a splendid canvass. He is not only retaining all his old friends but is, in every speech he makes, rallying hosts of new ones to his standard. Col. CARTER is finding his canvas a much harder one than he had anticipated; that instead of making the "Radical fur fly," as he boasted he would do, he is kept more than busy in his ineffectual attempts at warding off the blows his antagonist keeps on dealing fairly and squarely in his face. Our correspondent reports that it is wonderful to see how much of the aristocratic starch has been taken out of the Colonel since the canvas began.

☞ We have received a drop letter through the Post office chidingly asking us: "Have you forgotten the Municipal election? If you have we have not." We answer no! but the position we took then is the position we take now. We then said emphatically and repeatedly that we stood by and supported the regular nominee; we say so now. We have no sliding scale in these matters. We don't preach one thing and practice another to gratify caprice or special emergencies. And while we shall indulge in no abuse of those Republicans who do not agree with us in party ethics in this matter we wish it distinctly understood that so long as the NORTH CAROLINIAN is the party organ its editor will support the whole ticket all the way through.

☞ "Independence day" passed off at this place very orderly. There were at least two thousand people, from the surrounding country, in town. The streets literally swarmed with men, women and children. In the afternoon an impromptu celebration was held on Academy Green—a large crowd of people assembling. By request, addresses were made by JAMES H. SHAW Esq, Mr. THOMAS A. SYKES, and the Editor of the NORTH CAROLINIAN. As it is the birth-day of the nation, on its annual coming every citizen should be glad and rejoice in it. In the heart and the house, in the social circle and in public, by every becoming mode the day should be honored and made glorious in the eyes of the people. Patriotism is a virtue, and there are times when it rises to be one of the highest virtues.

☞ We have reports this week from a number of the counties of the District. In Hertford the Republican candidate for the Legislature JAMES SHARPE Esq. is making an effective canvas, and it is believed that the County will go Republican by a handsome majority. In Perquimans the Republicans are awake and at work. They will hold a large Mass Meeting at Cedar Grove on Tuesday next. WILLIS BAGLEY Esq., speaks at Bethel on Saturday the 13th, and at New Hope on the 20th. In Camden our friends are in the best of cheer. They propose to redeem the County and they will do it. In Currituck the Democracy are badly demoralized and are repeating the tragedy that made the felines of Kilkenny so famous! In Dare all is working well. From Chowan and Gates we have had no report.

☞ Elizabeth City has been visited by another disastrous conflagration, destroying property to the amount of over $80,000. Between the hours of two and three o'clock on Friday morning last, a time when the town was wrapped in deepest slumber, our people were aroused by the cry of "fire." A young lady sitting up with a sick child near Pendleton's Hotel, saw a blaze issuing from the North-east part of the large store building of the Land and Lumber Company. She at once made the alarm which aroused the BUNNELL Brothers, boarding at the Hotel, who were the first to reach the scene. The alarm was at once made general and crowds of people hurried to the spot, but too late to check or stay the ravages of the "fiery fiend." It had made such progress that all attempts to save any of the goods or property were fruitless. Mr. C. H. ROBINSON, the book-keeper of the Company, slept in the second story of the building. He was sleeping so soundly that it was with difficulty he was awakened, and when aroused he was nearly suffocated. A few minutes more would have been too late. He was rescued by a ladder from the outside. Nothing was saved. The buildings, goods, everything excepting the books and papers, which were in the safe, were burned. Through the efforts of the BUNNELL brothers the books and papers in the law office of Messrs. SMITH & SHAW, adjoining the store building, were saved, but the office was destroyed. The fire, in a very few minutes swept everything northward, reaching the buildings of Mr. WEISEL, likewise destroying them. Fortunately, having arranged to remodel and modernize his building, he had a few days previously moved the bulk of his heavy stock of goods into another store room. But for the calm still air and the profuse use of water the buildings on the West side of Water street would all have been consumed. Several of them did catch fire and at one time it was thought they all must go, but by persevering effort they were saved, with comparatively little damage. The loss of the Land and Lumber Company is heavy. They had a very heavy stock of goods of all kinds—the largest in Eastern Carolina if not in the State. Their Furniture Department, being in their building on the West side of the street, was saved, but the amount of goods lost is estimated $50,000. They had insurances as follows: $9,000 in the Underwriters company; $4,000 in the Royal; $6,000 in the London L & G; $6,000 in the Home N. Y, and $5,000 in the Georgia Home.—total $30,000. Their buildings destroyed were worth about $10,000. These were insured, $3,000 in the Triumph and $3,000 in the Lycoming Mutual. Mr. WEISEL's loss, is not so heavy. He is also partially covered by insurance. The damages to Mr. FOWLER and others on the West side of the street are likewise covered by insurance.

The origin of the fire is unknown. At first it was supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. But we do not believe it. From a careful inquiry into all that can be brought to bear on the matter we are led to believe it purely accidental. That it is a calamity to our town the great majority of our people feel and realize. Every business interest feels it because all know that the large Whole sale Department of the Company brought, annually, over a hundred thousand dollars of trade from the Sound country and the neighboring counties to Elizabeth City that formerly went to Norfolk, and all got a share of it. And it was a serious loss to the Company. But that they will at once re build we believe. It is the hope and desire of our people. They want to see the Mammoth Store rise Phœnix like from its ashes.

—Since the above was written the following Card has been handed us with the request to publish, which we do most readily:

Elizabeth City, July 8, 1872.

The undersigned, citizens, merchants, and business men of this City, take this method of expressing our regret at the severe losses sustained bv the Land and Lumber Company and S. Weisel, two of the largest and most influential business houses in our town, in the destruction, by the calamitous fire on the morning of the 5th inst., (which we believe was purely accidental,) of their store, goods and other property. And we hereby assure them that they not only have our sympathy in their losses but we believe and know that this sympathy pervades all the good thinking people of this entire community:

To the Public.

Having removed my Goods into the large Store Room lately occupied by R. H. Leigh, I was fortunate in saving them from the fire. I return my sincere thanks to those who rendered me kind assistance on the morning of the conflagration. I shall be happy to see all my friends and the public generally at my present place of business. I will spare no effort to render satisfaction to all.

S. WEISEL.

E. City, July 6th, 1872.

A Card of Thanks.

I take this occasion to publicly tender my profound thanks to those who so kindly aided in saving my goods from the fire on the morning of the 5th inst; and I especially mention John H. Zeigler, Thomas A. Sikes, Mr. Schlatuabe, Abm. Wilder, and my neighbor Mr. Black.

I. A. COHN.

Thanks.

I hereby tender my grateful thanks to those who so kindly aided me in saving my goods and protecting my property during the recent fire. But for their efforts both must have been destroyed.

S. S. FOWLER.

E. City, July 8, 1872.

DEATHS.

PAPPENDICK.—At this place on the 4th inst. after a lingering illness, GEORGE PAPPENDICK, aged about 50 years.

A PITIFUL CONDITION.—It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitaul condition is one of languor and debility. They compiain of no spacific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assi milation of the food' every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumsiances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two to sink afterward into a more pitible condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be aaccomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a centurv, is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.
This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.
It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.
To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.
In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

RICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

To Know the Age of a Horse.

The colt is born with twelve grinders; when four front teeth have made their appearance, the colt is twelve days old, and when the next four come forth it is four months old. When the corner teeth appear the colt is eight months old; when the latter has attained to the height of the front teeth it is one year old. The two-year old colt has the kernel, (a dark substance) in the middle front teeth, and when three years old they are substituted by the horse teeth. The next four teeth are shifted in the fourth year, and the corner in the fifth. At six years the kernel is worn out the lower middle front teeth, and the bridle teeth have now attained to their full growth. At seven years a hook has been formed in the corner teeth of the upper jaw, the kernel of the teeth next at the middle fronts is worn off. At eight years of age the kernel is worn out of all the lower front teeth, and begins to decrease in the middle upper front. In the ninth year the kernel has wholly disappeared from the upper front teeth, the hook on the corner teeth has increased in size, and the bridle teeth lose their points. In the tenth year the kernel is worn out of the teeth next to the middle front of the upper jaw and in the eleventh year the kernel has nearly vanished from the corner teeth of the same jaw. At twelve years old the crown of all the front teeth in the lower jaw has become triangular, and the bridle teeth are much worn down. As the horse advances in age the gums shrink away from the teeth, which consequently, receive a long and narrow appearance, and their kernels have become metamorphosed into a darkish point, grey hairs increase in the forehead, over the eyes, and the chin assumes the form of an angle.—Exchange.

Celery, its Benefits.

Besides being a most delicious luxury and relish, aiding in appetite, it is an excellent nervial, is celery, and a preventive of fever and inflammations. There is no better vegetable grown by the gardener than celery, and none so generally neglected by farmers. It isn't near as much trouble to raise as many think. Deep trenches are not necessary—in fact, are not the best way to grow it, in best quality—but rich, loamy surfact soil.

But it was not to give instructions in raising it that we set out to write this short article—an earnest plea for celery; but rather to impress upon those more thoughtless the happy effects of its free use upon nervousness. We have known, upon ourselves as well as others, that eating a nice stalk of it daily, at breakfast and dinner, the effect was to produce a pleasant steadiness of nerves and the removal of nervous agitation, securing steady hands and serene feelings, while the taste of the palate and influence on the stomach was always agreeable. It is greatly a preventive of palpitation and annoyance of that kind—much more sure and effective in that respect than the use of onions, with one of the disagreebble effects. Every family and person should eat celery. as salads or in the plain stalk, daily as common as potatoes or as tomatoes; and with a little seasonable care it can always be had, and now is the time to prepare for the winter's supply. Eat celery.—Farmer's Advocate.

To Banish Lice and Fleas.

Pennyroyal is a well known herb which grows quite plentifully in woods and pastures, and is decidedly obnoxious to the insect tribes. If it is mixed with lard either in the green or dried state, it makes a salve which will keep insects at a distance. If the herb is dry, sift the leaves and flowers through a fine sieve, and put them to an equal weight of lard; if green, bruise the leaves and stems and mix in the same proportion. Let the lard stand in a warm place where it will keep melted and on a very slow simmer for a day or two, then strain through a cloth, and keep in small pots. If two or three tablespoonfuls of spirits of camphire are stirred into the lard after it is strained it will keep sweet for years. If a small quantity of this ointment is rubbed under the wings of young chickens, the lice will flee away, and if it is rubbed about the neck and ears of animals, it will keep the fleas away.

It is said that it will also secure a fisherman from the attacks of black flies and mosquitoes if it is rubbed over the face and hands but due care must be taken to keep it from the eyes. Oil of pennyroyal mixed with sweet oil and rubbed over the skin will also keep off mosquitoes and flees.—Cor, Country Gentleman

Care of Horses at Night.

Few men who handle horses give proper attention to the feet and legs. Especially is this the case on farms. Much time is spent in the morning, in rubbing, brushing and smoothing the hair on the sides and hips, but at no time are the feet examined and properly cared for. Now be it known that the feet of a horse require more care than the body; they need ten times as much, for in one respect they are almost the entire horse.

All the grooming that can be done would not avail anything if the horse is forced to stand where his feet will become disordered, and the legs will get badly out of fix, and with bad feet and bad legs, there is not much else of the horse fit for anything. Stable prisons are generally severe on the feet and legs of horses, and unless these buildings can afford a dry room where a horse can walk around, lie down or roll over, they are not half so healthy and comfortable to the horse as the pasture, and should be avoided by all good hostlers in the country.—North British Review.

Curious Fact.

It is mentioned as a curious fact by old woodsmen that beach and sycamore trees are never struck by lightning, though standing in close proximity to oak, hickory and trees of their species by the subtle fluid.

How to Clean a Teapot.

A good way to clean the inside of a teapot is to put a teacupful of ashes in it and fill it half full of water, put it on the stove and let it boil ten minntes, wash thoroughly, aud you will find your teapot most as good as new.

A correspondent says that he protects his melons, squashes, cucumbers, &c., from striped and other bugs by using a strong solution of hen-house manure. Let it stand twenty-four hours and sprinkle the plants freely with it after sunset.

In 1864 Horace Greeley was willing to basely surrender, and let "the wayward sisters go in peace." Is such a man fit for President? Do not the people want wiser counsel, braver hearts, and better balanced heads than his to guide the ship of State onward to its destiny? Unquestionably. And they will re-elect General Grant by an overwhelming majority.

A significant fact—that the religious press of the country is, almost without exception, against the Cincinnati nominations.

SOUTHERN CLAIMS

AGAINST

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

Loyal citizens of North Carolina and other Southern States, will be pleased to learn that Congress at the last session passed a law for a commission to be appointed to examine and report on all claims that may be presented to them for Quartermaster and Commissary stores furnished the Federal Army during the late war.

The undersigned are prepared to furnish blanks, and give all information to those having claims—and to prosecute the same to final settlement. Having received the endorsement for ability, &c., from the Hon. Senators Messrs. Pool and Abbott and the Representatives from North Carolina—we bleieve that we can give satisfaction to all who entrust their claims to us.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where: and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses. all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotank county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3.000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3.000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15.000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3.500, $7.00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next. balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A Farm of 200 acres within one mile of Elizabeth City, with good two story dwelling, large barn and stables, and all necessary outhouses, orchard of fine fruit trees, and a large number of ornamental trees and shrubbery around dwelling. This farm is on one of the most public roads in the County—is in a high state of cultivation—has fine and durable fences, &c. Altogether, it is the richest land and most desirable location, anywhere in the neighborhood of the town. Price $6000—one-half cash, balance in easy payments.

VINEGAR BITTERS
VEGETABLE
FREE FROM ALCOHOL
PURELY
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen'l Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 & 34 Commerce St., N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

HORNER'S MARYLAND SUPER-PHOSPHATE.

(We court the Chemist's Inquiry.)

After 23 years' experience in the Fertilizing business, and after establishing a wide reputation for the purity and excellence of his Bone Dust, the subscriber has been induced to prepare a Phosphate suitable to the requirements and every way worthy the gttention of the Southern Farmer.

The "MARYLAND" it a juvinator and permanent improver of the soil. It stimulates equal to Peruvian Guano, and sustains equal to Bone, being composed almost entirely of these ingredients, with a very liberal per centage of Potash in the residum. There is no adulterator nor inferior article used—every particle of the Phosbhate being of essential benefit to the land. Neither pains nor expense have been spared in its preparation, and we claim for it the greatest benefit to the farmer from the smallest outlay.

For Cotton, Wheat and Corn, and as a general stimulant and ailment for worn and impoverished land there can be nothing superior. It is warranted to run as high in Ammonia and higher in Bone Phosphate than any other fertilizer in the market.

Price $50 per ton, in new bags. No charge for delivery.

BONE DUST $[illegible], [illegible] MEAL $50, DISSOLVED BONE $[illegible], our own manufacture, in new bags; Eastern and Western BONE DUST, [illegible] PERUVIAN GUANO delivered from Peruvian Government Warehouse at lowest rates. No charge for [illegible].

THE GREAT SOUTHERN TOBACCO SUSTAIN AND LAND RENEWER.

The Sustain is a specific restorer of the exhausted properties of impoverished and over strained land, and will generously repay the cost of its outlay in the quality and quantity of the Tobacco Crop, besides permanently improving the soil and raising it to its virgin standard.

It gives vigor to the young plant, promotes its rapid growth, and insures, in the matured crop a thickened, heavy leaf.

It is prepared similarly to the Maryland except that it contains much more potash and other Tobacco forming properties.

☞ $50 PER TON. NO CHARGE FOR DELIVERY.
